Daniel,
 Just, I'll tell you that I chose to write on this page because there wasn't one for Drama!
 decided to switch pens because the other might smear well, this year was alright!
 was nice to have someone in Physiology to deal play jokes with. Have a hell your senior

We, the annual staff, picked The Journey as the theme because we thought it fit the students. The title of this page is very appropriate because of the three classes in this high school. The Sophomore's Journey, their first, started on August 20, 1979, and they helped a lot over the school year. That journey will not be their last in high school. The middle journey is for the Juniors and it has been a very good one for all the Juniors. Then comes the last journey for the Seniors. They have come a long way from Sophomores to Juniors to Seniors, their last year. They have come through education, fun and frustration. Then they will graduate and go their separate ways. So you have it; the first, middle, and last journey in high school.

The First, Middle And Last Journey

This is Mrs. Bobby Hansen's last year at Belen High School. She is one of the most respected teachers at the high school. We are dedicating this 1980 yearbook to her because her journey has been a long one. She has been teaching here for ten years, and has seen many students come and go. There are many things she and her husband are going to do when she retires. They are going to visit their four grandchildren and are going to learn to speak Spanish. She and her husband plan to live in Mexico a couple of months a year. The administration and the student body will miss one of the best. Good by, Mrs. Hansen.

A Royal Journey

Off The Beaten Track

Cross country is the black sheep of high school sports because it does not receive all the hype, hype and fanfare that more widely popular sports do. Each individual sets out on the road to the top of the mountain and the inner strength of a runner is his only consolation is that he has to work out a grueling 3 mile workout in the very end. This year's cross country team was a mix of boys and girls who all had where he placed 1st to 10th in the 1000 foot race. Team members (l to r) were: Sandra Baca, Karen Griego, Bernice Chacon, Marcu Martinez, Bond, Philip Gomez, Leonard Potres, Matthew Romero, Ted Castillo, Dora Bernabe, Tonia Garcia, Marti Chavez, Louis Aragon, Jimmy Esquivel, Michael Benavidez, Frank Garcia, Randy Garcia, Kyle Marr, Jimmy Tharnish, Joseph Garcia, Robert Sanchez, Richard Castillo, Michael Sanchez, Joseph Chacon, and Rodriguez.

The Volleyball season was disappointing in the record book but the girls grew in experience and team work

1. Clockwise; Mary Bretting, Doreen Chavez, Mandie Trujillo, Loretta Baca, Mary Wallace, Marva Johnson, Pauline Trujique. Center: Coach Joanne Romero.
2. Clockwise from center front: Annadine Benavidez, Janet Mitchell, Vicki O'Hare, Shirley Hill, Debbie Milam, Robyn Oliver, Carmen Cordova, Angela Baca, Charlene Lopez, Center: Coach Romero.

The beginning of the 79-80 basketball journey was filled with high hopes, but as the season progressed the light of hope quickly dimmed for any place at state. Coach Griego's team never gave up and the crowd never stopped cheering them on. The talent that coach Griego brought out of these boys has been tremendous, and we all expect the coming year to be a winning season.

Graduation

It means:

Nerves, excitement,
laughter, tears, marching,
music, wind, tassles,
caps, gowns, speeches,
goodbyes,
congratulations,
diplomas, parties,
futures, maturing,
scholarships, decisions,
hopes and new school,
job, friends.

Board president
Corrin Sedillo

It took bobby pins and tape and a lot of tape to keep those mortar boards in in the wind

On a mild but windy May 23, the class of 1980 assembled for the recognition of their educational achievements. Ceremonies began at 8 p.m. with the special education graduation. Senior class president, Steve Gallegos, introduced the pledge of allegiance by likening the graduates to the stars-signs of hope for the future and the relatives, friends and teachers to the stripes firm complement and support. In an especially moving moment, the class paused to remember their classmate, Frank Apodaca, and the other students who had recently been killed. After speeches, scholarship awards and diploma presentations, the barriers came down and the crowd rushed to congratulate the graduates and whisk them off to the evening's celebrations

On The The Hills Class

is said that God works in mysterious ways and e year we all at the high school found that that s true. This year two of our most loved friends re called to by God, and we the students find it rd to see why this happened.

ese two students were Pat Wood and Kevin bet. Both of them were one-of-a-kind people.
 ey had and knew what they wanted out of life.
 ey had their dreams and goals and to some ple they were goals that were not important.
 t to them their dreame and goals were the one ng they strived for. So we say goodbye my ends and we think and know in our hearts that ur goals and dreams will live on.

TO KEVIN
 Kevin is gone now
 out not from our hearts.
 Our memories of Kevin will never depart.
 We will always remember
 he way Kevin was.
 He is in heaven now
 ust because Because he was chosen
 o make us all see,
 o appreciate life and he way things have to be

We all loved Kevin and will miss him so
 But some day all of us,
 we all have to go
 We will remember him
 so crazy and free,
 his laughter, his smile
 in our minds we still see
 We must let go now,
 to spite all the pain
 He is now in God's hands
 and has all to gain

Kevin Tabet, Pat Wood.

These three Belen High

of 17, had to leave their

those who follow will also

Every day is but a step
On a journey we must all make.
Where we go or how we get there
Depends upon the path we choose.

As you travel in your world from day to day Pay strict attention to what you hear And give thought to what you say.

Life is limitless
when you learn how to use that which is given you. Shy away from abuse. Test your boundaries but never needlessly knock them down. The only fool that smiles in reality conceals a frown.

 Now he's with me up above.
 He had his fun for a while,
 But now he's happy, so you can smile.
 You can love him, though he's gone,
 Because the love you have will carry on.
 You may be mad, because you had to depart,
 But if you really love him,
 he'll be in your heart.
 What has happened, will always be,
 But someday you too shall be with me.

There are many people involved in putting an annual together, and many people deserve our thanks. Among them are:
Mary Ann Luna for typing special copy.
Vangie and Barbara for kind, generous and rapid help.
Mr. Garcia for all his cooperation.
Mr. Hodges for all his backing.
Mela for keeping track of all the money.
Mr. Griego for speaking at our one day sale.
Mr. Tabet for speaking at our one day sale.
Mr. Gregory for speaking at our one day sale.
Mrs. Brody for speaking at our one day sale.
Mrs. Andrews for all of her faith in the staff.
Charles Rushton for his help with the one day sale slide show.
Thanks to the faculty for patience and cooperation.
Special thanks to the staff members for a great job!

Faces Along The Journey

The Writings On The Wall.

To the 1979-1980 El Aguila staff:

As editor in chief of this year's annual staff and, I hope, a friend to each staff member, I have a few things to say.

Well for one, thank you for everything you guys and gals did. Without you there would be no yearbook. I also want to tell you that I have noticed from the start of this year to the end we have had some differences of opinion, but we all worked together to come to a solution.

So, I hope that all you staff members liked working with me as well as I did with you. Well, in closing, I just want to say, "Thank you, and good luck next year." I hope next year's staff is as well together and can put out a yearbook as good as this one.

Good-bye.

Your editor and friend,

Paul Tabet
